There are three levels of registration: Enthusiast, Supporter or Professional Pass.

Online registration starts at free- name your own price. There is an admission level that everyone can afford. Try us out!

The Ohio LinuxFest is dedicated for making Open Source truly open to everyone.

We do not tolerate harassment and have a conduct policy promoting a safe environment.

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

FRIDAY includes the Early Penguins, which is an open track to all registered. This includes different free software topics, from 9am to 4pm.

Simultaneously, we will be offering OLFI professional training.

We welcome the professional students and the conference attendees to the opening of the Expo Hall and Happy Hour following the OLFI and Early Penguin Sessions. A Friday Keynote is also planned in this time slot. The speaker will be announced soon.

Birds of a Feather (BoF) sessions occur between 6 and 9pm Friday evening. A BoF is typically less formal and more interactive than your typical presentation. To host a BOF, the web site will contain a link After August 17th to submit your request. You can also request a room at the registration desk on Friday, space available.

SATURDAY includes keynotes, along many tracks of presentations. The tracks include General Sessions, Career Track, Lightning Talks, and Open Source Solutions Stage.

The Expo Hall is open all day.

A full schedule will be available on the web site after the speaker selections are completed.

A Call for Presentations is open until AUGUST 17, 2019. If you would like to be considered for a speaking slot, please view the details: <https://ohiolinux.org/call-for-presentations/>

Your submission will be considered for either the Early Penguin track on Friday or in one of the main tracks on Saturday.

HOW CAN WE AFFORD TO DO THIS?

Pre-conference registration starts at free- name your own price. Please be generous!

Some donate what they can at the time of registration online or at check-in.

Others register at the supporter or professional level.

Many donate prizes or purchase raffle tickets.

The all-volunteer staff works throughout the year to plan the event.

We are especially grateful to our Commercial Sponsors in the Expo Hall, and those companies who pick up the travel expenses of their speakers, attendees and more.

Supporting OLF is not just the cool thing to do ~ it is the smart thing as well! You'll be part of the largest gathering of users of Free and Open Source Software in the Midwest.

The Ohio LinuxFest is a Free Software community that started in 2003 as a large Linux User Group meeting. A generation of supporters has become the Ohio LinuxFest Community.

We are the largest gathering of users of Free and Open Source Software in the Midwest. Presentations, workshops, and certification opportunities are available for all to learn the latest technology.

Come along and join us as we network and celebrate personal computing freedom.
